

OXFORD COUNTY UNITED PAR.

North Lovell Entered the Parish—C. Supper at East Stoneham—See Seem to Favor Early Service—Meeting of Union Association at Albany.

This last week has been a busy one in the United Parish, but we may have to trouble you with offering much to read. Wednesday afternoon members of the staff called at several of the homes in North Lovell. The Sunday afternoon a service was held at the Grange Hall with singing and present. At that meeting it was decided to unite with the United Parish and B. McKeen with Mrs. Laura McKernate, was chosen to represent North Lovell on the United Parish Council. We are glad to welcome the people of North Lovell into our fellowship and hope we will find their new relationship pleasant.

Thursday evening, the East Stoneham ladies had a circle supper that was attended by a good crowd. On this Friday evening, the Albany Circle serve a supper and the supper will be followed by the presentation of "The Dubbs" by the Famous Players, New Waterford.

On Sunday morning services were conducted by Mr. Townsend at Waterford and Albany. Mr. Bush had charge of services at East Stoneham and New Waterford. At East Stoneham the King of Pythias attended the service in a together with the Sisters.

The early morning services at seem to be in high favor and they help to the staff in that they are to go into some of the districts in the afternoon to hold services, as the regular services are all over for the morning. The plan will be continued with this one change. The Sunday service at North Waterford is to be held after at 10:00 before the morning service, rather than after it.

The Union Association will hold a meeting with the Albany church in United Parish, Friday, June 4th. Session will begin at 10:00 a. m. and continue during the afternoon and evening. Speakers from outside the district will be present. Mr. Træ Norway will speak on Religious Education, bringing items of interest from recent Conventions he attended in South. Mrs. Træ and Rev. J. H. State Superintendent, will also be to speak. Notice the date has changed and the meeting is to be held 4th of June at Albany. You was sure to attend this meeting. The many ladies had a "bee" Tuesday evening the church. So all visiting friends should find there goodness and pleasant mingled.

BRIDGTON ACADEMY

Eight Athletes Will Compete at B. in Providence, R. I., on Monday.

The Bridgton Academy track team, spite of its overwhelming defeat Saturday at the hands of the New Hampshire Freshmen to the score of 89-36½, are not discouraged, as this Hampshire Freshman team is one of the fastest. Freshmen teams in the East defeated the M. I. T. Freshmen much larger score than the Bridgton men went down before. This week team is priming for the meet at Hebron. On next Monday, the town is at Providence, R. I., where they entered in the Brown Intercollegiate. This will make the first time the Bridgton men outdoors this spring there will be one more in this schedule, when the team will go on, fifth, to the Bates Intercollegiate.

In view of the great loss of the Brown only eight men will be there. This will cut the team of 18-20 which has been representing the Academy in all meets, to a team of eight. The eight making the trip are the most consistent performers for the Academy, the dashes Graham, Brundage and ten will be entered. In the long distance Muldoon. In the distance Pinkham and Silva. In the weights, headed for a great season with no defeats, and these at the hands of powerful Big Hebron team, and victories over Fryeburg, Columbia, Lewiston and Bucksport and the Portland team, with hard luck last week, when T. Humphries, upon whom Coach Small putting nearly all his strength for pitching, left school. Small found necessary to take in Jack Scott, the string catcher, and put him upon mound, and taking Harvey Strout as the second team and put him behind bat. This combination worked fine. Waterville and Bridgton defeated the state men 10 to 3. Waterville-Cowdery worked in the box against the Bowdoin String men and won his game 3 to 1. Curran was due to pitch against K. Hill last Saturday at Bridgton. A few hours before the game he received word from Portland to come home at because of serious sickness in the family. This put Coach Small in a bad hole. Costello was at the University of Hampshire at the University of the team. Larson, who has been placed in the outfield this year was placed in the mound and after the first two innings the game proved good. On Saturday was the fourth game of the season. Lewiston High will play in North Bridgton. This game will prove interesting. The followers of baseball in Bridgton-Harrison are having the opportunity of seeing some of the best players in the state as well as many of the league second teams in action at North Bridgton.

Coach Asa Small's nine which

On Monday, one of the fastest boys' teams in the state will oppose Bridgton team. The crack St. Ar-

Preparatory School nine of Manche

He comes to North Andover, Mass. team has defeated some of the best preparatory school teams and college freshmen teams in the East.

Miss Carrie Tucker, the versatile writer and newsgatherer of this section, has in some old books. They came from a trunk found in an attic.

Probably the most valuable in domestic sense is a history of the United States of America, with engravings by Wm. Chas. A. Goodrich. It is the 3rd edition, printed in Hartford, Ct., by Barlett, Robinson, 1824. The book is much worn and soiled, many of the expensive engravings are gone and some paper type.

On the first page of the Federal printed in Hallowell, Me., in 1826, F. M. Glazier & Co., is the name of D. F. M. of Norway. Evidently at that time was his book. It was copyrighted Jacob Gideon. The book is in poor condition. The prefatory announcement was written in Washington, May 18, 1826, and closes by saying that: "The necessity may therefore be relied on, even the punctuation."

The oldest book is the New Testament printed in French, which we are unable to read. It was printed in Boston in 1719. On the fly leaf of D. O. B. Howe, is sent to Mr. David H. Robinson by friend, Dr. Wight."

Visit With Former Friend

Editor Advertiser: I am enclosing my subscription for another year to your paper, this being the twentieth since I came to live in this city. I would not like to miss one number as each paper is like a letter from a friend, who tells me about the various occurrences "down home". In one number lately was a letter from an old schoolmate, A. M. Horr of Lovell, Mass., whose cousins were also my cousins. We sat side by side in that old schoolhouse, read from the same book, and sang the songs that never grow old. Even though the names are not all familiar, and one by one, old friends open and close the door to the room we must all enter, the hills and the roads and the village streets remain unchanged. One day I had an unexpected Such incidents warm the heart, and create pleasant memories.

I was also delighted with that picture of Bethel, my mother's birthplace. She was born in the hotel just near the Bethel Inn, which was removed a few years ago. My grandfather once owned "The Elms" and my grandmother's name was Sally Bartlett, though probably there is no one now living to remember her. The stories she told us of the old days are a delight to remember. Molly Orkett (colloquially "Lockett") often visited at her father's, Reuben Bartlett's, coming and going no one knew where or how they came. Once she said she had come from Massachusetts through the woods and sleeping beside a big log, woke to find a black bear sleeping near which was hard to believe, but Molly said, "You no touch bear, bear no touch you." Grandmother told another story. She and Elsie Ripley (who was Elsie Ripley) were traveling and burned him for blueberries ("don't see any such blueberries nowadays," said grandmother, "big as a marble!"). They got many as they could carry, when they saw a bear following them, so they turned down some of their berries and hurried on. By and by, they had to turn down some more, and this was repeated until after running a long way to "old Grandair Bartlett's" they did not have one berry. But "Grandair" and "the boys" sized their guns and soon shot the bear. So grandmother said "we got our berries after all," at which we all laughed heartily. Great-grandfather Bartlett was one of twenty-one children, so there must be some descendants living even in Bethel, though I do not know one of them.

It has been one of my dearest wishes to go to Bethel and stay a week where I could see those wonderful mountains in their many beautiful colorings. I wish you could see Worcester, just now in the fullness of spring beauty. The magnificent beds of tulips in the lovely parks. In North park is one bed twenty feet in diameter, yellow, white and flaming red, all in one gorgeous bed. There is always something entertaining. This week Mechanics Hall is the scene of the "Better Homes Exposition". Nothing has been left undone to make this the greatest and best affair ever staged in Worcester. There are many diversified products, more than sixty exhibitions of building materials, house furnishings, heating systems, electric appliances, musical instruments and radios, home finance plans, food products, household goods of every description, of much interest to everyone. Dancing every night in the lower hall.

Come with me, and as we walk down the street, I will show you the house where Charles Dickens spoke from the piazza, and the house owned by John S. C. Abbott, the historian, and where the lovely Blackstone River was filled up in the march of conservatism, where the Revolutionary soldiers mobilized and marched away to Lexington, where John Adams, our second president, taught school, the new Western church, just building, costing $800,000, the finest in the city.

All this very near my home, but many times my thoughts go back to the place where a few steps from the house we could see where Melville Dunham lives, now made famous wholly through his genuine simplicity and kindly friendliness for all mankind. And the earlier home where so many good men and women lived, their influence far reaching and abiding. The rule changes of time cannot destroy old hallowed memories—Ellen Millett Davenport, 53 Paine St., Worcester, Mass.

WHAT IS CALCIUM CHLORIDE FOR?

To the Editor: What is Calcium Chloride? Is it any good, and if so, what for?
On my street there are several barrels rolled up on the side of the road. What was it put there for? The dust on this street is so thick you can't see a car at any distance, when the wind blows and the houses just seem to be covered with an inch deep with pure sand. Disinfecting to the house wife, I will say.
Someone told me that I spent my money to help buy Calcium Chloride to put on the street to keep the dust down. Well, I also help pay sprinkling tax and I would like to know why we can't have a little dusting of this Calcium Chloride put on, instead of waiting for the snow to lay the dust. Last year we had to wait for dry weather, then we had to wait for rain, this precious stuff seems to require just what our climate doesn't have.
I'll say use it as soon as the dust blows in the spring, and again in the summer, and omit the coating we usually get in September or October, which does no one any good.
If we buy and pay for Calcium Chloride to put on the streets, and it's any good, let's use it in the summer when there is dust.
I am not a writer of news, an author or anything of the sort, but would like to have you print this in your paper and if anyone is interested, should like to see their ideas in print, also.
—A Taxpayer.

DEPUTY SHERIFF HAS RESIGNED

Deputy Sheriff, Dallas L. Benson of East Oxford has passed in his resignation, which went into effect Monday.

Arthur Bartlett of the Boston Herald staff was in town, Sunday and Monday, the guest of his uncle, Charles Bartlett and family. He is a readable story of Melie's home-coming for his paper.

The one hundred acre farm known as the Everett property on the Harrison road has been sold through the Gethell Real Estate Agency to Leland Waterhouse of Norway Lake.

Seats for the American Legion went on sale at the Opera House, Saturday at 6:30 a. m. Abe Klein, Harold Moore and Napoleon Roy had a layout of three boards in the Main street entrance where selections for the three nights might be made conveniently. Business was good during the day. When checking closed late in the evening approximately 1100 seats had been pegged. The sale continued Monday during the Melie celebration and many more seats were snapped up.

The committee in charge of the Memorial Day exercises desire the loan of automobiles for the procession, to convey the G. A. R. veterans and members of the Relief Corps and Daughters of Veterans. The procession will form at the K. of P. hall at 9 o'clock, Monday forenoon, where the automobiles may assemble.
The extensive decorations along Main street for Melie and Gram on Monday are considered the best and most elaborate since the centennial celebration in 1885. There were many finely decorated business blocks, but the display of Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Cummings wins the prize for the most attractive in the village according to competent judges.
Bunting, flags, nations and state banners with the stars and stripes were effectively arranged over their residence and across the yard to the trees. Many in the crowd missed this in the effort to squeeze about the reception platform.

Let's We Forget

Poppy Day, Saturday, May 29

The little red poppy, so full of meaning, representing the sacrificial blood of the boys who fell, has unfortunately been the cause of much strife and misunderstanding. It was to protect this flower from strife and the inroads of commercialism that the Convention Poppy Committee of the American Legion Auxiliary worked out a National Poppy program at the National Convention held in St. Paul in September, 1924.

In Minnesota the poppies were not all sold in the hospitals but a poppy has been maintained down town where on an average twenty-five disabled service men in need of financial assistance and men just out of the hospitals gathered daily through the winter and spring months to make poppies. These men were paid 1c for making each poppy and limited to four hundred a day, thus making it possible for a man to earn $4.00 a day during poppy season. To many this was a living for the family, to all it was a blessing.

The sick men in hospitals are paid the same but cannot make as many poppies. Think, however, what it means to these men to have this opportunity to earn something—if only a few dollars a month—and to take their place among the wage earning citizens. To the men without compensation the poppy program has meant new life, and even the men with compensation have gained a great deal from the mental diversion as well as comfort in the thought that they were able to earn an honest dollar—to many the first money earned since the war.

Because of the mental strain of the non-compensated men in the hospital as he thinks of his wife and little children at home with no income, and then open to him this door of opportunity whereby he can earn through the poppy program from $60.00 to $75.00 a month to send his family. One such case vindicates the program and there are many cases like it. All the American Legion Auxiliary can do for these men after the war with the poppy profits will never excel this service.

Because our poppy is an emblem of sacrifice, these who love the poppy are making every effort to teach the public all over the country the true meaning of the flower. The world in general has forgotten the war, and if the poppy will, in the season of Memorial Day, make the indifferent public remember the sacrifices which have been made for it by the men who gave their lives that our country might be saved, then indeed, the first and greatest mission of the poppy sale has been fulfilled.

Do you know that in the spring of 1919 amidst complete devastation, the poppies bloomed in abundance on the battle fields of France where so many of our men had fallen in battle, and that because of this the poppy has become the Memorial Flower of the American Legion and the American Legion Auxiliary and on Saturday, May 29, is poppy day in Norway.

Charles A. Frost has sold his house near the corner of Pleasant and Main streets to E. S. Russell, who will move there after some changes are made in side and electric lights have been installed. Mr. Russell recently sold his house on Whitman street to Mrs. Carrie Philbrook.

The new State Pier at Portland is a great asset to the State of Maine. Many thousands of tons of Maine products are shipped out from this pier for all parts of the world annually, in fact there is more shipping now than was anticipated at the time the pier was built.

Maine has a wonderful climate with its wide variety to suit all. It attracts summer visitors who doubt the population in the summer time. The hotels are modern, the roads good and ideal vacation land.

CENTER LOVELL

Rev. M. A. Brownson and wife have returned to their summer home here, after spending the winter at Southern Pines, North Carolina.

Fitting Glasses in Norway 39 Years

Because our poppy is an emblem of sacrifice, these who love the poppy are making every effort to teach the public all over the country the true meaning of the flower. The world in general has forgotten the war, and if the poppy will, in the season of Memorial Day, make the indifferent public remember the sacrifices which have been made for it by the men who gave their lives that our country might be saved, then indeed, the first and greatest mission of the poppy sale has been fulfilled.

Do you know that in the spring of 1919 amidst complete devastation, the poppies bloomed in abundance on the battle fields of France where so many of our men had fallen in battle, and that because of this the poppy has become the Memorial Flower of the American Legion and the American Legion Auxiliary and on Saturday, May 29, is poppy day in Norway.

I never see a poppy red
But minds me of our soldiers dead,
Each waiting in his tent of clay
The dawn of resurrection day
While drowsily above his head
The "sleep flower" hangs its crimson head—
A sign to those who wait and weep
"He breath his beloved sleep."

Oxford County Literary Union Held Annual Meeting—Mrs. Bean Dead.

Five seniors, five juniors, four sophomores and three freshmen have maintained an average of 90 per cent in all subjects and a department for the first half of the year.

The play, "The Wayside Piper," has been chosen to be given on June 10, the date of commencement. The cast is made up of about thirty of the class.

Stock is being turned to pasture, some later than the average. A lot of young stock in this vicinity.

The annual meeting of the Oxford County Literary Union held a very interesting session at Bethel Inn, Wednesday, May 19. The attendance was good. Two new clubs joined the union.

The address was by Rev. Morris H. Turk, D. D., of Williston church, Portland. Officers were elected and roll call of clubs, closing with America.

Victor Hethings, familiarly known as "Bert," is at home recovering from the effects of the flu grip he had while in Washington, D. C.; he is an overseas lad and is traveling auditor for the General.

Edward Albright Cross, widow of the late Thomas P. Bean and daughter of Mrs. J. and Rebecca (Staples) Cross, passed away at her home on Church street, Thursday morning, May 20. She was a life long resident of Bethel and one of the oldest of the Alumni of Gould Academy. Her health has been not of the best for a number of years. She leaves a large family of relatives, nieces and nephews and several cousins in different localities. A woman of sterling worth, kind heart and a devoted mother.

Funeral services were held at the home, Saturday, May 21, at 2 p. m. Interment in the family lot in Grove Hill cemetery.

Paul Bartlett is ill at the home of his sister, Mrs. Charles Bean, he has the flu and took cold and is quite a sufferer.

On account of her mother's illness, Geraldine Godwin resigned from the trusteeship of the grammar school and Helen Clark is filling the position. The many friends of Mrs. Carl Godwin are sorry to know of her continued illness.

Mrs. Charles Lyon is as comfortable as possible and her friends are hoping for marked improvement.

The Bean & Fox Co. are to open a new market. Sherman Allen is to be in charge. Mr. Allen is an experienced cutter. That gives the village four markets.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Brown and family and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brown and son, were guests of Mrs. A. B. Grover, Sunday afternoon and evening.

Mrs. Todd Twaddle is ill with the measles. Putting tarvia on the state road has begun, being the second coat.

FATES—WEST PARIS

Gordon L. Richardson

This community is mourning the sudden and unexpected death of Gordon L., only son of Clarence L. and Vivia (Swift) Richardson at the early age of 16 years.

This sad event took place at the hospital following an operation for appendicitis. He was gaining and nearly ready to come home when other trouble arose from which five doctors and the constant care of trained nurses could not save him.

He was to graduate from West Paris High school in June and had his class part written. He was president of his class four years, president of the athletic association, captain of the second basketball team and editor of the Nauticus and held some office in the other school organizations.

Gordon was of a pleasant, cheerful disposition and much loved by all, old and young and was a great favorite with his schoolmates, and will be greatly missed. He leaves to mourn for him besides his parents, one sister, Frances, aged 13, his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Swift, who had always lived with him and Mr. and Mrs. George Richardson of South Paris and a great grandmother, Mrs. Della Berry of Bryant Pond and a large number of uncles, aunts and cousins.

Miss Fuchs of West Paris spoke words of comfort to the bereaved family. Burial was in Pleasant Valley cemetery. The flowers were many and beautiful, too many to be listed, silent tokens of love and esteem.

Trap Corner

Mrs. Wallace Hixson and two sons called on Mrs. Earle Treavor, Tuesday. Mrs. Thelma Hazelton and child spent Monday with Mrs. D. H. Curtis.

Frederick and Arthur Briggs both have the measles. Mrs. Helen Swenson has just recovered from the measles.

Robert Pierce had a party recently, the occasion being his sixth birthday. The guests included Myron, Maurice, Mica and Clayton Pierce, Elsie Dean and Glenn Emery. Refreshments of ice cream, birthday cake and candy were served and the little folks had a fine time.

Orin Bowker has bought the house owned and occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Earle Treavor and will move there soon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Dean and Elmer Dean were at E. Treavor's, Thursday evening.

Mrs. Carrie Bird and Mrs. Ada Swan have been at C. R. Briggs', recently.

Mrs. B. L. Swift, Mrs. Stephen Davis and Mrs. Walter Davis went to Massachusetts, Saturday.

NORTHWEST NORWAY

WIN $1,000

THIS is the second of a series of five educational advertisements, written by The Veteran Motorist for the Standard Oil Company of New York.

Each advertisement contains a definite question on lubrication, and the Standard Oil Company of New York will award $2,500 in cash to the 79 contestants who write the best answers to the whole series of five questions.

At the bottom of this column you will find Question Two. Question One was published in this paper two weeks ago today. If you missed reading it send your name and address, and The Veteran Motorist will be glad to mail you a copy.

The third advertisement of this series will appear in this newspaper two weeks from today. Watch for it.

Rules of the Contest

1st Award	$1,000
2nd Award	500
3rd Award	250
4 awards of	100 each
5 awards of	25 each
20 awards of	10 each
50 awards of	5 each
79 awards, totalling	$2,500

Any one may compete in this contest, except those connected directly or indirectly with the Standard Oil Company of New York.

The answers to the five questions may be typewritten or written with pen and ink—one side of the paper only—one answer to each question.

No single answer may be longer than 150 words, and each answer must be numbered to match the number of the question. All answers must be written in the English language, and are the property of the Standard Oil Co. of New York.

All five answers should be sent in together and the contestant's name and address should be plainly written on the first page of answers.

No answers will be considered which are received later than Saturday, July 17th, 1926. The awards will be made to those who write the BEST answers to the five questions. That is, to those whose answers, in the opinion of the judges, indicate that they have given most thought to the subjects covered by the questions and have learned most from The Veteran Motorist's instructions in the Standard Oil Company of New York's advertisements.

Address all answers to "The Veteran Motorist," c/o Standard Oil Company of New York, Room 411, 26 Broadway, New York City.

Question Two "Of what service has a Lubrication Chart been to you?"

THE motor oil requirements for the various makes of cars vary widely. Cylinder bores vary in size and there are differences in the type of bearings and in the types of oil feed systems. Changes in motor specifications may require a change in oil specifications.

From my studies I have also noted a great variety of temperatures in the motor. The explosion generates about 3000° F. The exhaust manifold is about 1000° F. Piston walls get up to 450° F., bearings as high as 250° F., and the underside of the piston head up to 700° F. One can readily picture the need of not only a superior motor oil but also the need of the proper grade.

A SUPERIOR OIL—OF THE PROPER GRADE

A grade of oil that will properly lubricate one motor may be too thick or too thin for another. If too thick, it acts sluggishly and may not flow to the bearings; power is wasted in internal oil friction. If it is too thin, it will flow too freely and will allow bearing wear; oil will be wasted and the car may be ruined.

Socony Motor Oil and the Socony Chart are your protection. Why trust to luck?

In cooperation with motor car manufacturers, the Socony laboratories, by shop and road tests, have determined and CHARTED the best consistency or grade of oil for each individual motor. A careful check of this data is made annually.

Lesson for May 30

JACOB AT BETHEL

LESSON TEXT—Genesis 28:10-22.
GOLDEN TEXT—I am with thee and will keep thee in all places whither thou goest.—Gen. 28:15.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jacob Dreams at Bethel.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Jacob's Vision at Bethel.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Place of Vision in Human Lives.

I. Jacob's Flight to Haran.

He fled from an outraged brother. His deceit and cunning got him into trouble. His long exile from home was the result of his selfish ambition. "Whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap." Rebekah made her plea before Isaac for sending Jacob away, stating her fear of Jacob's probable marriage with a daughter of Canaan, when in reality she feared that Esau would kill him. Isaac at once recognized the wisdom of her suggestion. He knew that the success or failure of one's life is largely determined by his marriage. It was clear that if Jacob were to continue in the line of the covenant blessing care must be exercised in his marriage. Besides, it is a parental duty to see that children are well married. Among Christians only marriage in the Lord is allowable (1 Cor. 7:39). Isaac, alive to Jacob's destiny, issued his command and bestowed upon him the covenant blessing which had come from God Almighty to Abraham (Gen. 27:1). The elements embraced in this blessing are:

(1) A numerous offspring (v. 3).
(2) Possession of the promised land (v. 4).

(3) And everything that is included in the Abrahamic covenant (Gen. 12:1-8 and Gen. 15:1-8).

We should learn from the experience of Jacob.

1. Be sure your sin will find you out.

2. That wrong home life has its perils.

Isaac knew that the blessing was to be Jacob's, yet he planned for Esau to have the place of prominence. He was willing for the sake of a little venison to give to Esau that which God had planned for Jacob.

II. Jacob at Bethel.

1. The Lord meets Jacob at Bethel (vv. 10-15).

With a spirit clouded by homesickness on the one hand and by fear on the other, he had a dream that night in which God appeared to him. In this dream Jacob beheld a ladder or stair reaching from earth to heaven, upon which angels were ascending and descending. Above the ladder stood the Lord who spoke to him. This ladder suggests a means of communication between man and God. Jesus Christ is the ladder which provides us a means of communication with heaven (John 1:51; 14:6). He is the bridge between the chasm between earth and heaven. He was a real man that He might identify himself with the race. He is very God, really divine, that He might lift us up to God and secure a reconciliation with Him. Earth and heaven, man and God, were separated by the introduction of sin, but through Christ a means of intercourse is re-established. This vision suggested to Jacob that the only approach to God was through a mediator. The angels ascending and descending are heavenly messengers which are sent to minister to man through the mediatory work of Christ (Heb. 1:14). God spoke to him from the top of the ladder and assured him that He is the God who entered into covenant with Abraham and renewed the same unto his father Isaac (v. 13). This assurance embraced the following:

(1) The possession of the land (v. 13).

(2) A numerous offspring (v. 14).

(3) The promise of His personal presence and preservation (v. 15).

This promise was fulfilled in a marvelous way with Jacob and is still being fulfilled with his seed.

III. Jacob's Vow to the Lord (vv. 16-22).

He set up as a monument the stone which he had had for a pillow. He named the place Bethel, which means the house of God. Jacob now vowed that since God had so graciously obligated himself to perform all this for him, he would enthrone God as the Lord of his life and give back to Him one-tenth of all that was given to him.

Meeting of Sunshine Singing Club—Home From Dedham, Mass.—Built Third Cement Wall—At Work on New Cottage.

The Sunshine Singing Club held its first meeting in the Methodist church, Saturday at 2 p. m., May 14. Fine reports were made on Christmas boxes packed and kindly visits to the aged, sick and injured during the winter months when their leader, Miss Monroe, was away. Mrs. Ida A. Holden and Mrs. L. K. Rounds with Mrs. Urban Tyler assisted in these winter activities and the club fully appreciates their interest. This club plans to bring sunshine and cheer to our community. Let's all encourage our girls and boys in this work.

Thomas W. Hardy returned to his home on Tuesday, May 18th, after spending the winter with his daughter, Mrs. Young of Dedham, Mass.

Mrs. A. A. Monroe has recently had electric lights installed in her home. M. E. and O. G. Brown of Otisfield did the electrical work. It was fine work and Mrs. Monroe is well satisfied.

Orrie Monroe came to our village, Wednesday, after spending the winter in New York. At present he is stopping with his sister, Mrs. Jennie Plummer.

Mrs. A. A. Monroe has been cementing her shed floor and has built her third cement wall on the second terrace. Arthur Kingman and Horace Gardner did the work.

Mrs. Martha Perry and daughter, Clara, arrived home on Monday, May 16. Nephews, Harry Lyman and Frank Burnham brought them by auto from Watertown, Mass. Mrs. Sargent was very ill during the winter, but is on the gain now.

Miss Moore and Mrs. Wolfe recently opened their house on Stanwood Hill. Neighbors and friends are glad to welcome them home.

John Miller, who has been laid up with a lame back, is enjoying a visit from her cousin, Mrs. Greenleaf and husband from Brockton, Mass.

Mrs. Will Marr is speedily recovering from a recent surgical operation.

Miss Monroe attended a nice birthday party for Christine Gardner and Elizabeth Miller at the Community House, Waterford on Friday. Games were played until refreshments of cream and cake were served. The birthday cakes were very pretty with pink and yellow candles. Many gifts were received by both girls. May all years be as happy as the past thirteen have been.

Dene Abbott Leopold, husband and baby spent Sunday at her father's, W. E. Abbott's.

Mr. Watson, who has been confined to the house for two weeks, is on the gain a bit now.

The Moore house has recently been painted. Will Green and Charles Nelson did the work.

The Grammar, Intermediate and Primary schools gave an entertainment, on Wednesday evening, May 19th, at Dudley Hall, to an immense crowd.

The Grammar school, taught by Mrs. Bertha Packard, gave their program first, which consisted of first, a song, "We've Got the Mumps." Each one had their head and face all bandaged and it was hard for them to hear the poem and try to sing.

Next was a dialogue, "Patriotism at Boggsville," which took in the whole grammar school. This showed a flag raising and all sorts of patriotism, which was very nicely done. These characters caused a lot of merriment.

The Intermediate and Primary schools combined and gave the Marriage of Jack and Jill, which was very nicely done. The bride was Methyl Wing and the bridegroom was Raymond Bryant.

Elden Hathaway acted as minister. They had chorus boys, flower girls, and lots of other things to represent the Mother Goose Rhymes. After the wedding, they held a reception to their friends. This certainly took lots of work and it was beautiful. The teachers and laborers labored hard for the benefit of the schools and much praise is due them. They had ice cream, cake and homemade candy on sale.

A large sum of money was realized. A dance followed, music by Mrs. Fred DeShon, piano, and Miss Davis, traps and drums. Mrs. Olive Larver is teacher in the Intermediate School, Miss Lottie Bryant in the Primary School.
